

Jeff Miller
Short Biography / Introduction

Jeff Miller is the President and Chief Executive Officer of Junior Achievement of Central Indiana which serves over 25,000 students' annually in over 200 schools in 30 counties throughout Central Indiana. During Jeff's tenure in Central Indiana, the JA program has changed and grown extraordinarily. Jeff also serves as the President and CEO of the Experiential Learning and Entrepreneurship Foundation and is the Board President of the North Central Regional Education Laboratory which serves the k-12 education systems in seven Midwestern states.

In January of 2004 Junior Achievement of Central Indiana completed construction and opened the Gene B. Glick Junior Achievement Education Center, the largest and most unique experiential leaning facility of its kind. They continue to lead the nation with new program and operational innovations as they expand. They now reach not only students but adults as well with an additional focus on financial literacy. On a worldwide basis, JA is now in well over 100 countries and reaches over 5 million students worldwide.

Prior to coming to Indianapolis in 1994 Jeff served as President and CEO of Junior Achievement of South Florida in Fort Lauderdale and President and CEO of Junior Achievement of the Michigan Edge in Jackson, Michigan.

Jeff's overall experience encompasses twenty nine years of consistent leadership in for-profit business, consulting and non-profit administration. He has owned and served as president and CEO for multiple for-profit businesses, he has been involved in multiple business start-ups and served in senior leadership and board positions in several other for-profit companies during his entire business career.

Jeff has also been active in his community with 28 years as a member of Rotary International and has served on countless civic boards, task forces and committees. He has been recognized with numerous awards and distinctions for exceptional leadership and management effectiveness. He served nine years as a volunteer emergency medical technician and ambulance attendant and is a past two term Mayor of Reading, Michigan.

Jeff and his wife Cindy of 29 years have a 26 year old daughter, Jamie, who currently is the Associate Director of Title I for the Indiana State Department of Education. Please join me in welcoming Jeff Miller.